One is to give one thing away for free with your guide, corresponding to a valuable bonus item. Or bundle several ebooks below one value, which lowers the value for each book if they were bought separately.

An efficient method for figuring out a worth is to send out a survey to your present customers. If these prospects have already bought an book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price.

Do this by creating a gross sales page for the new e-book, but don't include a value on that page. Instead, add quite a few links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another technique is to check out costs by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with different costs on each page. Make sure your sales copy is precisely the identical on every page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and sales of your book. This may inform you what your optimum value is.
